ILLUSTRIOUS SIR SEB BADOYAN

JANUARY 2021

POTENTATE'S NOTES

Hello Nobles, family and friends,

On behalf of the Badoyan family, I wish you a Happy and Healthy New Year! While we all had a different and at times difficult 2020, in the end I believe we all did our part to make it memorable.

Judy and I would like to take a moment to thank each of you for allowing us to serve as Potentate and First Lady of Al Malaikah. With your help and dedication, we were able to accomplish and adjust many projects and events to continue to make a positive impact on the Medical Center and our members.

Our communications and cooperation between our members, units, and clubs was outstanding! Our auditorium company and its members did a fantastic job. Our temple office did a fantastic job on catching up with paperwork and putting safety nets in place for generations to come. We wish Noble Tylor Davies a successful journey in his new adventures as he is back to school and finishing up his education. Thank you for your service to the temple over the last several years.

Under normal circumstances by now we would have had our new corps of elected and appointed officers move into their roles. After many conversations with our Divan members, Past Potentates and Imperial, we were advised, and agreed, to hold our elections when we are able to meet in person. We all hope this will be sooner than later.

In closing please always remember this:

Grapes must be crushed to make wine
Diamonds form under pressure
Olives are pressed to release oil
Seeds grow in darkness
Whenever you feel crushed, under pressure, pressed or in darkness
You are in a powerful place of transformation.
Trust the process.

Your wish is my command,
Seb Badoyan
Potentate

SCHENANIGANS!

When Illustrious Sir Seb asked me to write a quick article for your newsletter, I was honored and stumped at what I could write about. My first thought was to write an article about how special Al Malaikah is to me and the friendships I've gained through the years. I decided that would be too dry and sappy for my introductory submission. My second thought was to write about the great things you did this year through the pandemic, touching on your virtual ceremonial, your weekly Zoom calls and how active your Temple has remained. You all know how spectacular you did on both those topics so I needed to find a better topic. So what could I possibly write about that would be fun and insightful? Schenanigans that's what!

Schenanigans, as defined by Webster's are high-spirited or mischievous activities which one could argue are a cornerstone of Shriner history! Did you know our founding fathers had a 'special table' on the second floor of the Knickerbocker Cottage? I don't know why they had this table BUT I can speculate that when these men got together for their luncheons, Schenanigans were afoot and the staff at the Knickerbocker had to put them someplace "special"! Another fun fact is when Florence and Flemming were crafting the initiation rites, they had others helping them including another lawyer, a ritualist and a scholar. When you think about it, it reads like an introduction to a good joke "Two lawyers, an actor, a ritualist and a scholar walk into a bar...!" My point in all this is simply that our Fraternity was founded by men looking for fun and fellowship and we owe it to our forefathers to continue this long history of schenanigans.

As Nobles, we are natural story tellers and enjoy sharing stories of the fun we have had. For example, I can still recall the first time I heard of Noble Bill Hovel or "Wild Bill" to his friends. The story, as told to me, was about Bill's escapades at Midwest Shrine Association meetings in Winnipeg, Manitoba, Canada. Evidently, Wild Bill found himself a Shrine horse and decided to ride it to the hospitality room. Not a big story to tell with the exception that the hospitality room was located on the 9th floor! Evidently, he made it into the elevator and from there the details get a bit sketchy. I am sharing this story to show how Wild Bill's schenanigans live through me and now through you.

Imperial Sir Jim has challenged us to return to our roots and bring back the fun and fellowship. I'm not asking you to ride a horse through a hotel, rather take Wild Bill's spirit with you and have some fun. 2020 has been a difficult year and we owe it to those following us to make new stories that will live on after our fez has faded. Here to the red fez and the stories within it!

MEET WESTWOOD SHRINE CLUB

Westwood Shrine Club

By Noble Dr. Bernie Harris, with assistance from Nobles Mac McGinley Mike Newfield, Ron Hart, Carl Spring, Ben Turner, Steve Harris and Guy Richmond.

The Westwood Shrine Club got its charter in 1947, and its name survived mergers over the years with Santa Monica, Westchester, Sowela and Bay Cities Shrine Clubs. In its early days, Westwood held its meetings at the Beverly Wilshire Hotel and grew quickly, consisting mostly of Jewish Nobles in the western part of Los Angeles County. Estimates of around 1500 members, of which approximately 800 were active members, are plausible. The Club held lavish Gala events in the Beverly Hilton Hotel with entertainment by notable guests or other Nobles. There were also organized cruises to exotic places and tours to various international regions, and all these and other events were fundraisers for the Los Angeles Shriners Children's Hospital, which started in 1948. For the last many years, the new Potentate's first POV banquet was traditionally always held with Westwood Shrine Club in early January at the Olympic Connection in West L.A. Once the largest Shrine Club in the Los Angeles area, membership started diminishing in the latter 20th Century.

Monthly meetings were held at the Spitfire Grill at Santa Monica Airport for the last several years, but that restaurant recently changed hands and menu, and a new venue will have to be found after the end of the Covid-19 pandemic, when we can again meet face to face. Our officer Nobles for 2020 were President Mac McGinley, 1st V.P. Dr. Bernie Harris, 2nd V.P. Mike Newfield, Secretary Ron Hart and Editor of the Newsletter, Carl Spring.

SHRINERS FOR CHILDREN

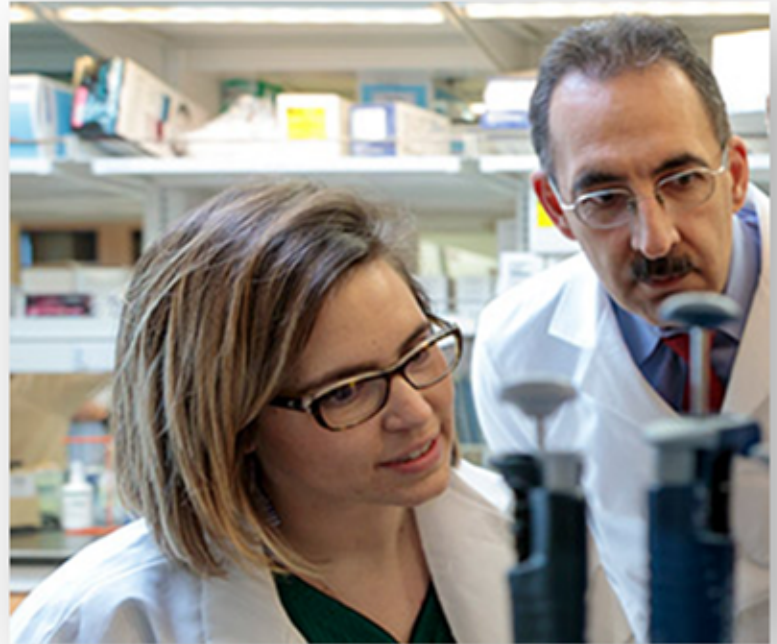

SHRINERS HOSPITALS FOR CHILDREN STUDY REVEALS NEW LINK TO ARTHRITIS

A new study by investigators at Shriners Hospitals for Children — St. Louis suggests the damaging effects of obesity are not due to body weight but rather come from something much smaller – biochemical signals released by fat cells.

The study focuses on the link between overweight or obesity and the development of osteoarthritis, a painful disease of the joints. The investigation was led by Farshid Guilak, Ph.D., director of the St. Louis Shriners Hospital Research Center.

“We’ve shown here that it’s not overloading of the joints that is responsible for osteoarthritis, but, more likely, a factor given off by fat cells that makes cartilage susceptible to degeneration,” said Guilak, who also serves as the Mildred B. Simon Professor of Orthopaedic Surgery at Washington University, a partner of the St. Louis Shriners Hospital.

While historically regarded as an unavoidable part of aging, osteoarthritis is now appearing more commonly in children. This is due in part to widespread increases in childhood obesity, coupled with injuries that commonly occur in adolescents, such as knee ligament tears.

Little scientific research had been done in the past on the connection between obesity and osteoarthritis because, Guilak said, it was simply dismissed as a byproduct of overloading the joints with increased body weight. But the new study by investigators at the St. Louis Shriners Hospital and the Washington University School of Medicine shows that weight gain alone isn’t the cause. Inside the research

The researchers used a unique type of mouse that has no fat cells anywhere in their bodies. Even when they were fed an unhealthy, extremely high-fat diet, these mice did not develop osteoarthritis in any of their joints. The researchers were surprised to find that even with a knee injury that normally causes rapid degeneration of the cartilage, fat-free mice were protected from getting osteoarthritis.

Then, the researchers implanted a tiny piece of fat under the skin of these mice, so small it had no effect on their body weight. The mice became susceptible to osteoarthritis, even though there was no weight gain. This showed researchers that fat outside the knee joint plays a critical role in cartilage health.

The study was published in the journal Proceedings of the National Academy of Sciences. It was designed and executed by the lead author Kelsey Collins, Ph.D., a postdoctoral fellow in Guilak’s laboratory.

“This study demonstrates that factors outside of the knee joint can affect cartilage health, which opens the door for a wide range of new osteoarthritis treatment targets we can investigate,” Collins said. “Once we identify the factors given off by fat cells that are responsible for these effects on the joint, we hope to develop new drugs to target them.”

In the meantime, Guilak, who also co-directs the Washington University Center for Regenerative Medicine and is a professor of biomedical engineering and of developmental biology, said that a healthy diet and weight loss are the first lines of prevention for osteoarthritis.

“Something like this could take years to develop, but we’re excited about its prospects for reducing joint damage, as well as many of the other unhealthy effects of obesity,” Collins said.

YOUTH ORDERS

by: Most Worshipful Russ Charvonja PGM

The Grand Lodge Youth Orders Committee reminds you that Most Worshipful Art Weiss has proclaimed March to be Youth Orders Month.

Prior to the pandemic, lodges up and down the state held programs focusing on one or more of our youth orders. Such programs generated interest among the brethren and help to establish and strengthen lodge support for our local Masonic youth groups.

However, since restrictions on in-person gatherings will most likely continue through March, your lodge must find new ways to promote and engage our Masonic youth.

We have 3 suggestions for you to fulfill MW Weiss' proclamation:

Stimulate interest among your lodge brethren by playing videos at your next virtual stated meeting.

- Rainbow Girls Video
- Job's Daughters Video
- DeMolay Video

Help your members learn about our youth orders and obtain contact information for local youth groups by directing them to the Grand Lodge website, Masons4Youth.org.

Identify the youth groups near you through this google map: Youth Orders Map

It is often stated that our youth orders are important to the future of our Masonic family and to society. What is often missed, however, is how these young people can invigorate your lodge. March is your opportunity to focus on the wonder of our Masonic youth.

Sincerely and fraternally,
Russ Charvonja, Past Grand Master
Youth Orders Committee, Chairman

BLUE LODGE

CONGRATULATIONS

This year Panamericana Lodge No. 513 celebrates 100 years since the establishment of its number in 1923. A celebrated number, having operated deep within Hollywood for decades before being inherited by a Latino Lodge just 15 years since chartered to conduct Ritual and Business in the Spanish Language. From its beginnings in Granada Hills to its present home at the famed Shrine Auditorium, Panamericana has provided a welcoming home to Latin American Masons from several countries in the InterAmerican Region. This has allowed Masons to continue practicing their craft in their first language and be comfortable in sharing their masonic journeys familiar in most Spanish speaking countries. In the recent decade the move to make Panamericana Lodge a part of the Traditional Observance movement has allowed a creative explosion of education and social activities designed to bring out the original intent of the craft, that of being a mystical school of learning and self-improvement, a perfect complement to the mission that defines them: "A Spanish Speaking Traditional Observance Lodge dedicated to the to the preservation and execution of the highest level of Ritual, education, personal growth, fraternity and the improvement of our communities."

Noble Edwin Torres

Worshipful Edwin O. Torres was initiated into our noble craft on the Twenty Fifth Day of November of the year 2002 in what was Cahuenga La Brea 513 and went on to become a Founding Member of Panamericana Lodge 849, the first Lodge chartered to conduct all Business and Rituals in the Spanish Language. The merger of these two Lodges in 2009 would result in Panamericana Lodge No. 513 where Worshipful Torres has served several offices but most notable as Master of the Lodge in 2012, 2017 and 2020. He has fulfilled the duties of Candidate Coach, Officer's Coach and held the esteemed office of Inspector of the 533rd Masonic District in 2013/2014. In 2018 he was awarded the prestigious Hiram Award for dedicated service to Panamericana Lodge and the craft on a whole. A Loving and Dedicated Husband to Dolly and exemplary Father to Ezra, Edwin is the embodiment of the true definition of a family man who never wavers on making them his priority in life. An ardent Mason with a skill for counsel and mentorship, Worshipful Torres is a true leader, having guided the lodge on a steady course in what sometimes were rough waters to a bright future. CLOWN UNIT

BRING IN THE CLOWNS

By Noble Louis Gross
AL MALAIKAH SHRINE

How do we get clowns to join the Unit.?Should be easy! After all the Shrine is known for its Clowns thru out the community and everyone should want to be a member, easily said.

Who makes the best clown? Is it the butcher, baker or the candlestick maker? I can't answer that because I have known clowns that work in so many different careers. It's not just the class clown many are very serious business men ,but in Face they all have the same goals"Making people(kids) feel good and have fun doing it.

What type of clowns are there? There three basic clowns the classic White face, the Auguste and the Hobo. The guy in the ballon suite can be a whiteface or Auguste. The Hobo can be Happy or sad Tramp. There is also Character clowns he could be a fireman,policeman,cowboy pirate,etc.

I was visiting a hospital one day and there was this WhiteFace Clown with kids all around laughing have good time. I went up to this unknown clown to thank him for helping out. He seemed to know me but I didn't recognize him. Out of makeup I knew him as a stern not funny guy. That experience showed me you never know who will make the best clown!

Let us know if you would like be a apprentice clown.

The clowns of Al Malaikah are also members of WSCA and ISCA. We have International Shrine Clown competition and classes twice a year, a magazine, Web site, Facebook page. I have met so many great Shrine clowns at the mid-winters & Imperial meetings. I have learned from the best & made friends all over the country. Men that all have the same goal. To improve their clowning, to "Having Fun & Helping Kids" and raising money for the Sneaker

COVID vs TRADITION

Worshipful G. J. GABRIEL

Even a worldwide pandemic couldn't keep Kris Kringle from making his annual appointed rounds in Pasadena. For the 86th year in a row, the Pasadena Junior Chamber of Commerce, along with the Pasadena Scottish Rite, made sure toys were delivered to good little boys and girls throughout the Pasadena and Altadena communities.

In the past, over fifty Santa Clauses, along with Mrs. Clauses and a battalion of elves would gather at the North Pole Headquarters at the Pasadena Scottish Rite on Christmas Eve and set out in different directions to deliver the goods. But this year, due to safety concerns, the families came to Santa.

A winter wonderland was constructed around the cathedral while cars filled with eager children waited to see the "Jolly Old Elf". As the line of cars moved past, Santa greeted them from a safe distance while "elves" placed bags of toys and goodies in the trunk. The adventure continued for three days straight.

When it was all said and done, thousands of kids from the local community received their Christmas wishes and a very tired Santa returned to his workshop to prepare for his annual Christmas Eve journey around the world.

Thank you, Pasadena J.C.'s and Pasadena Scottish Rite for keeping the dream of Father Christmas alive and well in these difficult times.

Every Noble needs a Living Trust to protect himself, his loved ones and his hard-earned assets. Why?

To Ensure:

- That when you pass away, your assets go to the people you want without expensive court interference and unnecessary legal fees
- Your spouse is properly cared for after your passing or during your disability
- Your children's inheritance is protected from divorcing spouses
- Your grandchildren are protected from those who would take advantage of their inheritance
- The people you choose are in charge of your financial and healthcare decisions if you become disabled
- Your charitable intentions, if any, are carried out

Did you know:

If you die without a Living Trust or Estate Plan, the State of California has a plan for you, but you may not like it:

- 1. The court will decide who gets your assets.
- 2. Your family will likely wait 18—24 months before getting what they are legally entitled to.
- 3. The court, attorneys and others will get to keep about 5% of your gross assets for themselves—money that should go to your loved ones. (If you own an average California home, that translates to approximately $25,000)

 Noble, if you have a Last Will and Testament, your family will still face problems 2 and 3!

If you want to subsidize the State and others, use the State's plan. If you love your family, use a better plan.

Planning takes only about 2 hours of your time and may be less expensive than you thought. It gives you peace of mind knowing that you've taken care of your family. We cater to the nobility of Al Malaikah, so consultations are always free for fellow nobles and we offer special rates to our masonic brethren only. We'll also review your old Will or Living Trust, free of charge. For Nobles who can no longer drive or are disabled, limited in-home appointments are available.

RITUAL CAST

By Ill. Sir Dave Chernik, P.P.
AL MALAIKAH SHRINE

One Shrine organization that everyone is familiar with is the Ritual Cast. These Nobles are the team that performs the Ceremonials through which every Shriner must pass, from the fully-staged affair on the stage of the Shrine Auditorium to the mini-ceremonial conducted at the far reaches of Al Malaikah's jurisdiction. So the Ritual Cast has been involved in each of our first steps into Shrinedom.

The Ritual Cast is comprised of Nobles, current Divan officers, and Past Potentates with a common goal to present the ritual to the Candidate class that expresses the Shrine's historical foundation and meanings in a most enjoyable manner. The Ritual Cast staged positions are all the elected and some of the appointed Divan positions, as well as a few ritual-only positions. Cast members put in quality time to learn their parts and the floor work and to attend the practices. Sometimes, Cast members have to step in or switch parts at the last minute to cover last-minute absences. That the Ceremonials proceed seamlessly is evidence of their dedication. However, the Cast members' years- to decades-long tenure testifies to their enjoyment in this group.

Thank you to the Ritual Cast members, past and present, for their critical roles in creating new Shriners for Al Malaikah. The Ritual Cast Director is Ill. Sir Ken Judd, P.P. Current Cast members include Nobles Edwin Escamilla, Brian Foote, Kerry Halgrims, Steve Harris, Bret Hart, Kalani Jensen, Gary Kahvedjian, Gary Phillips, Scott Shaw, Mike Shematek, Tommy Ray Smith, and David Williams: Ill. Sir Seb Badoyan, Potentate; and Ill. Past Potentates Fred Bernhardt, Dave Chernik, Lynn Georgeson, Ken Judd, Mikie Metzler, Bruce Ponoroff, and David Wehmeyer. Cast Members Emeritus include Nobles Rafael Hernandez, Stirling Lockett, and Dale St. Clair.

Following our first 2020 Ceremonial on January 25, the rest of 2020 presented challenges to staging Ceremonials throughout Shriners International. The Al Malaikah Ritual staff modified the open ritual script and added graphics for the first remote (Zoom) Ceremonial in the U.S., if not the world. This debuted on September 12, 2020 to the first remote Candidate class, which was observed by close to 200 Shriners, including the Imperial Potentate, Imperial Sir Jim Smith, and by other Shrine Centers. This Ceremonial ritual was expanded, improved and presented on December 5 to another remote Candidate class. Additional thanks go to Nobles Zack Maples, Shrine Director, Dario Gamboa, Oriental Guide and Zoom Wizard, and Danny Foxx for graphics and public relations. Regardless of being the Shrine remote trendsetter, we eagerly await the first in-person Ceremonial to come sometime in 2021.

There is always room for more Cast members. There are a few openings for positions where members have moved up or will be moving up in the near future and almost all positions need understudies who would be prepared to fill in if a Cast member is ill or otherwise unavailable.

For information, please contact Ill. Sir Dave Chernik, P.P. at davidchernik@gmail.com.

MEMBERSHIP MESSAGE

Nobles and Ladies of the Shrine.

Greetings from your membership team! In spite of the challenges we all have faced in 2020, all-in-all, we did well as a Shrine Temple and we're looking for an even better year in 2021! As we approach getting back to normal ops. Our quest for good men who want to have fun and help kids still remains at our fore-front. As Shriners, we all have roles and responsibilities, to "talk it up" amongst ourselves, friends and our brothers in the Blue Lodges and of course, other Appendant bodies. Nobles, you've all heard this one before, but just remember, if everyone could bring in just one new member over the course of the year we'd be stronger than ever.

Please help to restore Al Malaikah Shriners to be everything our organization deserves to be — feel free to contact any of the Membership Team. Our Chairman, Noble Barry Balonick, assisted by Nobles Jack Witz, Director of Ambassadors, Kerry Halgrims, Director of Festivities along with Kris Askins, Director of Men-ities along with Kris Askins, Director of Mentorship, and Danny Foxx who is our PR Director.

This coming year one of our objectives is in reaching out to our local Shrine clubs for their assistance in helping securing new members for 2021, as they are regional experts in Masonry, that have active members attending local lodges and are our front line scouts to help identify worthy candidates who are strong enough to make it across the hot sands.

Thank you, Nobles as we look forward to a very promising 2021!

"God rested them in Peace"
 To the land of promised rest,
 Their work is done and the setting sun
 Has sealed their life's request.
 They have left this earthly strand
 For the house beyond the sea,
 Though the past is gone,
 They will still live on
 To us all-Sweet is our memory.
